DONALD TRUMP

BY ADITHYA

On Tuesday 8th November, 2016 the USA election took place. Donald Trump is now the president elect of the USA. The amount of promises he has made to have this role is countless. He has sworn to cut all taxes which has proven to be impossible. In addition to that he said he will remove up to 3 000 000 criminals, which is impossible to do. This is passably the worst one of all - he wants to build a wall among the border of Mexico that costs $10 000 000 000, and he wants the Mexican government to pay for it to stop immigrants from entering. He wants to ban all Muslims, ban Obama Care (when rich people pay a little more for their medical needs so that poor people can be treated). If you understand why Obama Care is important then you will realise that banning it is completely absurd!

WHY, USA?

On 10/11/2016 Trump and Obama met in the White House to discuss difficulties. SE25 is yet to discover more on this. On 20/01/2017 he will gain the keys to the White House and begin his role as the activated President. Some people have been saying - nightmare for four years in America. You might not know this but the first 100 days as president are the most important because he has to deliver what he has promised. A few reasons not to have voted for him are: because he has been bankrupt six times, he is rich and most of all - he has no political life.
